

Ombudsman received the relatives of the victims of the March 1

Today RA Human Rights Defender Karen Andreyan received the relatives of the victims of the March 1, as well as Aram Manukyan, MP from the Armenian National Congress, who was accompanying them.

The relatives of the victims and the MP expressed their deep concern and dissatisfaction regarding the lack of improvement in the examination of the March 1 events. They pointed out that they have no trust towards the legal process.

The parents of the victims suggested the Ombudsman carry on with voicing the issue during the meetings with the European commissioners for human rights.

Ombudsman Karen Andreyan presented a few suggestions to the parents of the March 1 victims. At the same time, the Ombudsman expressed readiness to support the process within his powers and the legislation.

Staff of the Human Rights Defender