

Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan was on a three-day business trip to Germany

Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan, by the invitation of the German Federal Foreign Office, paid a three-day business visit to Berlin.

The RA Human Rights Defender visited the German Bundestag and the German Federal Foreign Office, having meetings with a number of high ranking officials.

Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan had meetings with representatives from a number of human rights NGOs.

The Ombudsman has also met the members of the Armenian Community in Berlin and answered to their various questions.

Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan had a meeting with Christoph Strasser, Federal Government Commissioner for Human Rights Policy and Humanitarian Aid. The Commissioner has highly appreciated the work of the Ombudsman and his Staff, by expressing readiness to deepen cooperation between the two offices.

In his turn, Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan has expressed confidence that his visit to Berlin will give a new impetus to deepening cooperative relations between Armenia and Germany, as well as it will promote implementation of mutual Armenian-German projects in the field of human rights.
