

THE OMBUDSMAN URGENTLY RECEIVED KARO YEGHNUKYAN IN REGARDS TO THE ISSUE OF HIS SECURITY

Karen Andreasyan, the Human Rights Defender, urgently received Karo Yeghnukyan the political and social activist. Karo Yeghnukyan informed the Ombudsman about his very concerned on his personal security as he was actively participating in the “Liberating the Monument from Oligarchs” campaign. He also informed the Ombudsman that “he is being threatened and pursued, as well as they sow and rouse hatred towards him”. Karo Yeghnukyan is convinced that on October 15, as a result of the pursuit, four unknown people damaged all the four tires of his car on which he informed the Police. In defense of Karo Yeghnukyan the Ombudsman urgently sent a letter to the RA Head of Police.

The Ombudsman Karen Andreasyan has numerously touched upon the security and health protection issues of human rights defenders and social activists. The Ombudsman once again persuades the Police to ensure effectively the proper security of all the citizens who display social and political activeness.
